Hi Joyce,

I hope you had a lovely walking holiday!

This is the display idea for 1,000 books (I've got up to 500 so far), the flowers are just tied with a bow to the curtain rail hooks, so very quick to take down if needed. The customers choose an insect character which they can decorate at home and bring back for laminating. As they read more books they move their insect along the display. I'll put another stem to the left of 100 as a starting point.

I'm off for the week when I finish today, back on the Tues 2nd Oct.

Best wishes,

Deborah
